Then and Now

A History of Charity Pins

This yearbook marks the beginning of a new era in the history of Charity School of Nursing. The school administration was transferred from Charity Hospital of New Orleans to Delgado Community College. The last diploma class was graduated in May 1992, and in December, the first Associate of Science degrees were awarded to 117 students, along with a new school pin. Many changes have taken place, but the excellence in nursing education continues.

Student Life

Family Matters

Deidre DeBram, May '93 and Michele Stiffel, Dec. '92 follow in the footsteps of their mother and sisters to become proud Charity graduates.

Alice Faust and her sister Lynn Mathews are part of the first ADN graduating class.

Jerry Roche and his son Kenny practice skills together in the lab.

Patty Haskins, May '92 brother, Chris, Dec. '94 and sister, Mary Borel, Dec. '92, make a great Charity nursing team.

Jackie Adelfio and her daughter Melissa were caught discussing drug SE's in the supply room.

Tanya Gee and Andrea Gee catch a breath of fresh air on the 3rd floor patio.

A recent Charity diploma graduate, Cheryl Brooks and Mother, Cynthia Harper, a future ADN graduate, represent a legacy of nursing in their family.

DX: Performance Anxiety

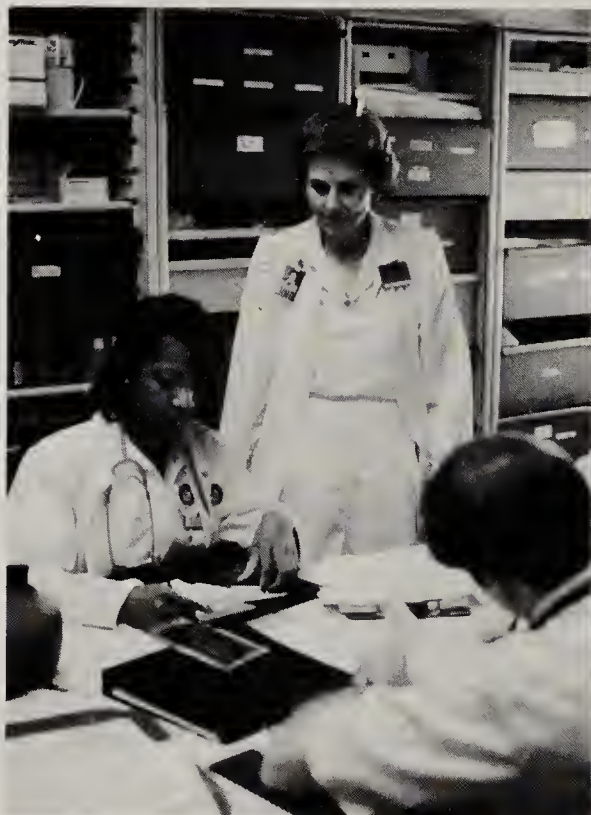

Phyllis Bowen, gets a few pointers from Ms. Pittman regarding her correlation paper.

Ms. Deethardt shows Parent-Child Nursing students, Patrick Oncale and Mitzi Arnold how to hold newborn infants.

Basics in Nursing Instructor, Ms. Arceneaux watches closely as her students work on their documentation.

NAC I student, Denise Harris updates her kardex.

NAC I instructor, Mrs. Ulmer, quizzes Barbee Crews about drug SE's.

Ms. Davis demands perfection as Judy Pennison does wound care.

Barbara Hardeman hangs an IV in SICU.

Brian Baio and Greg Deichmann, practice abnormal assessments.

Diane Lee, Darlene Theriot and Cheryl Blake check the medicine cart for their patients' A.M. Meds.

NAC I student, Chanda Richoux checks her patient's pleur-evac for I&O's.

A group of Mental Health Nursing students pose proudly in front of the door they decorated for the Charity Halloween door decorating contest.

DX: Post-Trauma Response

A group of students cope through smoke therapy.

"Christine Hitzman, stop biting those nails!"

Ms. Labadot's clinical group relax at a local Chinese restaurant.

Denise Hymel chills out.

Students take time out from their studies to enjoy life.

Mary Strasser's son, Traven teaches Ann Howard's children how to release stress at the Christmas party.

Charlie de Marmol uses ice cream as comfort food.

Barry Sykes tells Lynn Robertson "Nursing school was rough, but worth the hard work."

A group of Charity's finest are dressed up and ready to go!

Kim Honore pours herself a "cold one" after a long clinical day.

Brian Baio, Dawn Weiser and Tim Bryars flip out over burgers.

DX: Altered Sleep Pattern

"Yes, I am awake — I'm just in slow motion," says Elizabeth Espat.

The Fall Dance takes its toll on Erron Pujol as his date catches a nap on his shoulder.

The altered sleep patterns of dorm life take full effect on Michelle Steiffel and Diane Lee.

"I CAN make it — I KNOW I can . . . My feet will be dirty & my eyes may be shut, but I will make it!" says Stephanie Gowland.

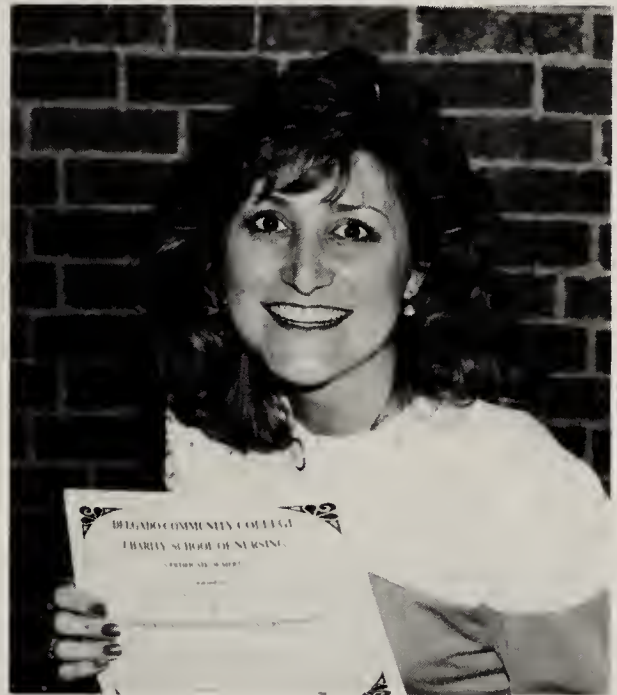

Stephanie Drew, Louis Cantero & Pam Jacobs are so tired they let their muppets speak for them.

The watchful eye of the yearbook photographer catches the unsuspecting Missy Miller as she tries to catch a couple of winks.

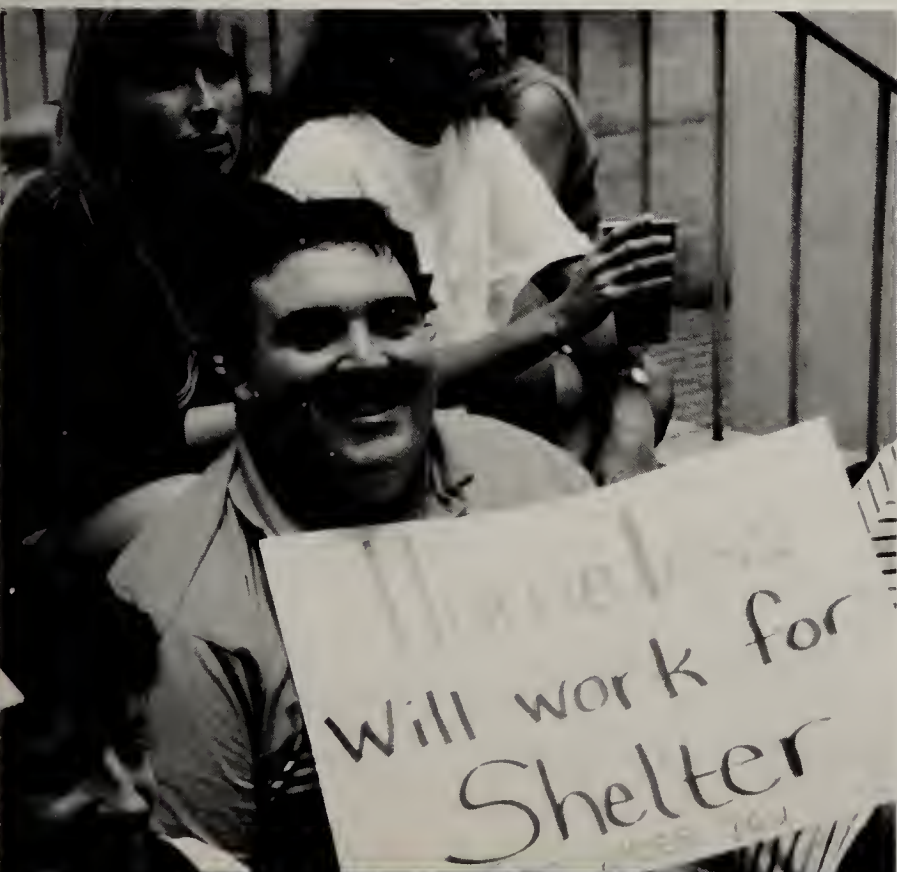

"Altered sleep patterns agree with me!" shouts Jelice Griffin.

Donald Lirette is trying his very hardest to stay awake!

"Receiving this award was worth all those sleepless nights!" says Michele LeBeouf.

Roy Duthu not only loses sleep but is worried about losing his home as well. Please Donate . . .

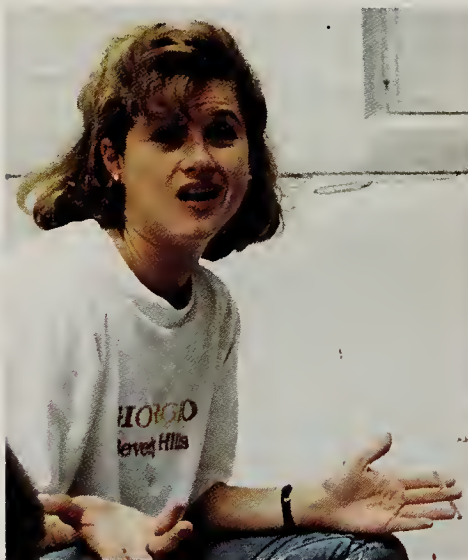

DK: Altered Thought Processes

Happy smiles are the only order of thought for: Patrice Sims, Bridgette Stewart, Barbara Holly-Young, Sharon Stovall, Pat Johnson, Gaynell Dorsey, Monica Dove, Lucy Austin.

"Wha?!" asks Wendy Gurgeot.

For Traci Bland "partying" is the altered thought going on.

The ultimate altered thought process — happens to David Seiler in the library.

"Hey Hey" . . . We're through thinking for the day says: David Bomrito, Beth Warren, Laura Vosburg, Raquel Armstrong, & Shirley Strahan.

The thought process is "fun with makeup" using Mary Fitzpatrick as the model.

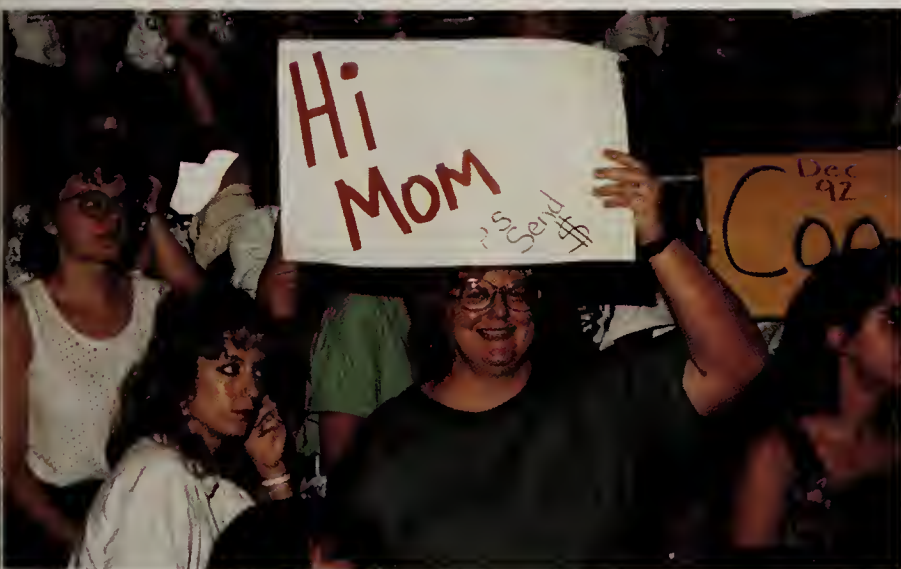

At the end of the "Back-To-School Party" — there are no thought processes — Alternate or otherwise for Julie Waguespack & Lisa Nuss.

"Your aunt better put her thinking cap on, this is my lecture for tomorrow" says Ms. Anderson to Kathy Tate and her niece.

"Would you like to really know what I am thinking?" asks Janice Gendusa.

Some students speak their minds through signs at convocation.

"Let's define what a thought process is," says James Outland to Ginger Powers.

"I had a thought but then I lost it!" says Tina LaMunyon to Becky Oliver.

So long until next time . . .

Sally M. Cooper
Director, Charity School of Nursing
1980-1992

What fascinates those who come in contact with Sally Cooper is that she never takes the credit for the good things that happen. To Sally, it is always due to the faculty, or the students, or the alumni, or the administration of the Hospital or College. We who have worked with her know the truth. She has encouraged, cajoled, inspired and even pushed us to be better. ...Better students, better teachers, better nurses. She has stood with us and for us. She has been our spokesperson and our conscience. She has been our colleague and our friend...

Student Government Association

SGA officers Tom Calhoun, Mark Calkins, Dawn Weiser & Terry Cullen enjoy dinner at 4141 "Steven & Martin's" from Children's Hospital.

Tom Calhoun, Ms. Redmann, Mark Calkins, Debbie Dummitt & Terry Cullen make a nice SGA portrait.

SGA officers: Tommy Calhoun, 1st VP; Debbie Dummitt, Secretary; Mark Calkins, President; Dawn Weiser, Treasurer; Terry Cullen, 2nd VP.

The Student Government Association is comprised of five SGA Officers, class board members, and presidents of all organizations. The SGA oversees all organizations where students are involved. Your elected representatives hope your year was made more enjoyable by student activities and student organizations.

Mark Calkins wishes everyone a Merry Christmas from the SGA at the Christmas Party.

Jonathan Little & Kyla Copeland receive Certificates of Distinction from the SGA.

Shannon Babin, Kelly Todd, & Ms. Perry are enjoying the Banquet festivities.

Debbie Dummitt presents the SGA pin to the newly elected secretary Chris Haskins.

Greg West gathers some advice from Margaret Garcia.

Lisa Pendarvis presents Level I sponsor JoAnn Langford with a gift from the class.

SGA Executive Board

The Student Government Association (SGA) Executive Board is composed of the President, 1st Vice-President and Secretary, along with one elected delegate and the President from each class.

This board establishes the agenda and business that is presented to the SGA General Body. The largest project for the year was the review of the SGA charter and all related organizational charters.

SGA officers give a great deal of time to meetings & activities.

Student Activities

Student Activities Committee: Back Row: Jonathan Little, Ms. Redmann, Dawn Weiser; SGA Treasurer, Hollie Hardeman, Jewelanda Lewis, Denise Moore; Front Row: Lori Ladner, Denise Hymel, Judy Pennison.

Student Activities meeting always promotes lively discussion.

The 1992-93 CSN activities began with the Fall "Cajun Cook-out," followed by the Dance at the Carrollton. December saw the annual visit by Santa Claus and his elves for the handing out of the gifts to the children at the Christmas Party.

Spring '93 opened with a Pizza, Beer & King Cake Party, and continued with the Annual Crawfish Boil at the Lakefront. The Graduate Banquet at Smiley's and the SGA Banquet at Tony Angelo's closed out a most successful year.

Spring Class Boards

Ursula Leon, Shane Dufrene, Frank Benfiglio, Lisa Pendarvis; President, Jeweland Lewis; Vice-President, Jennifer Maruer.

LEVEL I

"CLASS OF ENTHUSIASM"

Numerous activities were sponsored by Level I to promote togetherness at the school. Among the more popular were a Lakefront crawfish boil, an Easter candy delivery at the Pediatric Ward at Charity Hospital and a raffle for a dinner for two at Mulate's Restaurant. A "Big Sibling/Little Sibling" program was implemented to help orient, assist and make incoming freshman feel at home at the School of Nursing.

LEVEL II

"CLASS OF THE CENTURY" 1894-1994 "100 YEARS OF EXCELLENCE IN THE MAKING"

"We're halfway there and living on a prayer" became the slogan for the Level II Board and their advisor, Mrs. Garcia. From their "Half Way Home" party (with the traditional balloons galore), through the sweatshirt sales and B.P. cuff and 50/50 raffles, this group had a busy and prosperous year.

Craig Cedotal; President, Mitch Guillory, Greg West, Alan Nash; Secretary, Wendy Gourgest, Hector Mackay; Treasurer, Lori Ladner; Vice-President, Kathy Moller, Margaret Garcia; Advisor.

LEVEL III
CLASS OF DECEMBER 1993

Most memorable for this class was the effort to raise money for the double lung transplant of classmate Jerry Roche. Efforts to raise money through a volleyball tournament was very successful, and although Jerry passed away, the efforts to work together for him brought the CSN students closer together.

The infamous "Rick's" snack bar closed (due to dorm renovation) and the Level III class took up the slack by selling food in the lobby to their always-hungry classmates.

Even a rain-out couldn't dampen the appetite of the CSN students. When the Class of December 1993 had to reschedule their crawfish boil, the follow-up was a rousing success.

Shanna Leonard, Nancy A. McQueen; President, Shannon Babin, Kelly Todd, Judy Peniston; Vice-President, Denise Hymel, Chris Case.

Lucy Austin, Carla Hotard, Dub Overheu; President, Ann M. Pizzeck; Secretary, Denise Madere, Shae Landry; Treasurer, Denise LaCoste; Vice-President.

LEVEL IV
"SECOND TO NONE"

Advisor Stan Bagbey and the Level IV students participated in many endeavors during the year. The Blood Drive and the AIDS Walkathon were very successful, along with the "Scrubs" sale for the class party at Ernst Cafe. Most memorable was the Graduate Banquet held in April where the RN name tags were given to them by Level III.

Residence Life Committee

MOURNING OF THE CSN DORM

Those of us who were fortunate enough to experience dorm life know that we are losing much more than just a dorm room. We are losing our home, many wonderful experiences, and most of all Charity traditions.

We will sincerely miss the potluck dinners, the comradeship, the weekend cram sessions and fighting over the washing machine. Most of all we will miss the traditions of Charity like the elevator ladies and affordable housing. When the "new" dorm goes up, so does the automatic elevators and the rent.

On May 21, 1993 the CSN dorm will be officially closing its doors for renovations and to the end of an era.

Lori L. Ladner
Dorm Resident '92-'93

Audry Lupiba, Melissa Adelfio, Denise Hymel, Joanne Redmann, Darrell Bennett, Denise Madere, Tina Genara & Sr. Margaret are the Residence Life Committee.

Patsy Richard represents the total dorm experience!

Is this really a CSN dorm room?

Let's get another view!

Spectrum

Lisa Devezin, Ava Williams, Roxana Williams, Patrice B. Sims (Treasurer), Barbara Holly-Young (Delegate), Kelly Placide, Sharon Stovall, (President), Charles del Marmol, Bridgette Stewart, Valerie Jones.

Spectrum (formerly BSO) changed its name to integrate all minority perspectives into student life, allowing them the opportunity to communicate in a multicultural environment.

Spectrum also provides support to students who need assistance in being incorporated into the mainstream of the educational process.

Spectrum members Barbara Holly-Young, Patrice Sims, Sharon Stovall, Bridgette Stewart, Roxana Williams & Charles del Marmol gather round Ms. Evans at the Graduate Banquet.

Alma Evans smiles brightly as she receives the Spectrum Award from Barbara Holly-Young.

Spectrum members take their meetings seriously! Just look at Barbara Holly-Young, Patricia Sims, Terri Watson, Angela Davis Collins & Charles del Marmol.

Charity Association of Student Nurses

CASN proudly supports AIDS awareness at the "NO-AIDS-WALK-A-THON."

"Kansas City . . . Kansas City here we come!"

The future of nursing — NSNA's newly elected Southern Chair of nominations and Elections — Mark Calkins.

CASN Leaves a significant mark — An original lithograph representing the essence of Charity.

The function of Charity Association of Student Nurses (CASN) is to aid in the development of the whole person and his/her responsibility for the health care of people in all walks of life. The members participate in many community activities such as: Self Protection Seminar, Relief for Victims of Hurricane Andrew, NO Aids Walk, Associated Catholic Charities Health Fair, Delgado's City Park Campus Health Fair, Clothing Drive for Charity and the Carnival Krewe of CASN at Tulane and Charity.

Sigma Alpha Chi

Sigma Alpha Chi is a service-based organization, bestowing honorary membership to those students who achieve a 3.20 or higher cumulative grade point average upon completion of NAC I.

Members offer tutoring services in Math and all other areas of the nursing curriculum, including care plans.

Their motivation lies in seeing the success of fellow students mastering the nursing process and succeeding at CSN.

Fall '92 new members are inducted by the reading of the oath.

SAC officers for Fall '92 are Gwen Skaggs, Denise Moore, James Kilgore, Mitzi Arnold, Carol Weed, and Donald Hymel.

SAC members are always working including Denise Moore, Gwen Skaggs, Mitzi Arnold & Chris Wedig.

Members listen to the reading of the By-Laws at the Spring SAC Induction.

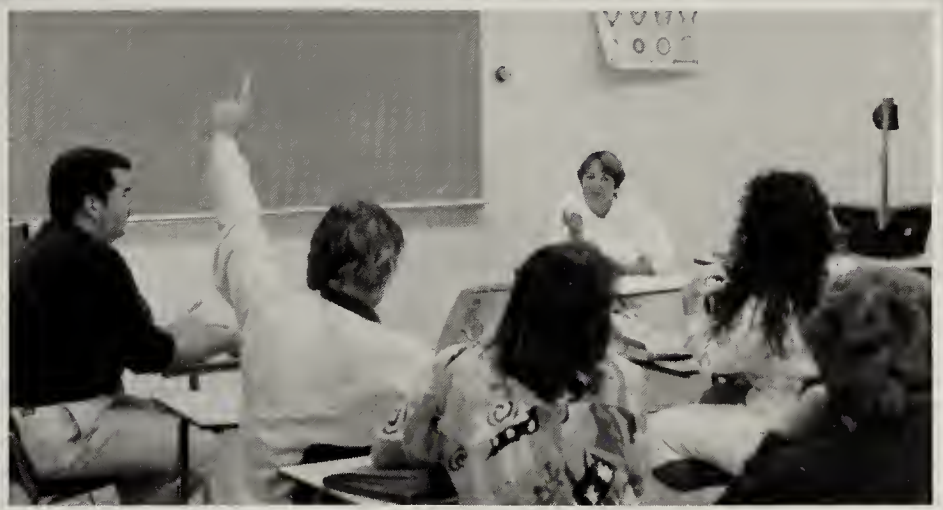

Gail Barrau, Acting Director, watches over Leslie Green as she signs the SAC book as a lifetime member.

SAC members participate actively at the meetings.

Denise Moore & Mitzi Arnold conduct the 1st meeting of the spring semester.

Ms. Ayme, Marilyn Shannon and Shanna Wilson enjoy the end of the semester party.

SAC has a Good Luck Party for the graduates.

Denise Moore, Ann Marie Pizzeck and Chris Wedig cut the cake at the SAC Senior Good Luck / Goodbye Party!

Communications Committee

The Communications Committee is comprised of the 2nd Vice-President of SGA, the editor of the I&O, the editor of the yearbook, the Coordinator of Student Affairs and the yearbook advisor. The purpose of this committee is to centralize all publications thereby insuring proper distribution to the student body, and to consider requests for publication and distribution of other media.

Joanne Redmann is the quintessential communicator.

David Parker furiously searches for clip-art to put in the I&O.

Mary Strasser, Joanne Redmann, Kyla Copeland & David Dawson I&O Editor make up the I&O staff.

Caps & Capes

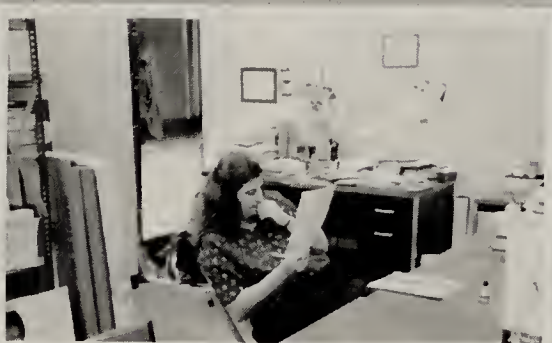

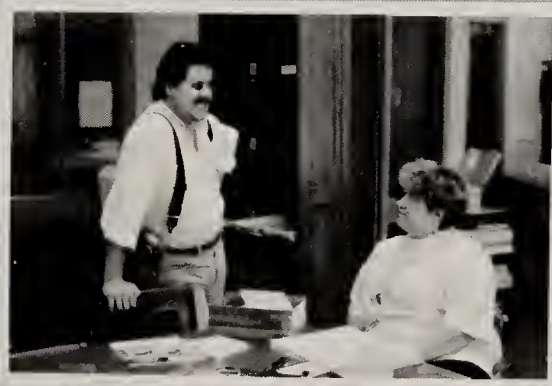

The yearbook staff is captivated by Don Scamardo, Yearbook Representative.

Thais Sigur, Shirley Strahan & Kathleen Palisi, look mighty fine at the Graduate Banquet.

This picture is worth a thousand words to Mary Strasser & Carla Hotard.

Darrell Bennett checks out the new camera while another member of the yearbook staff takes the picture.

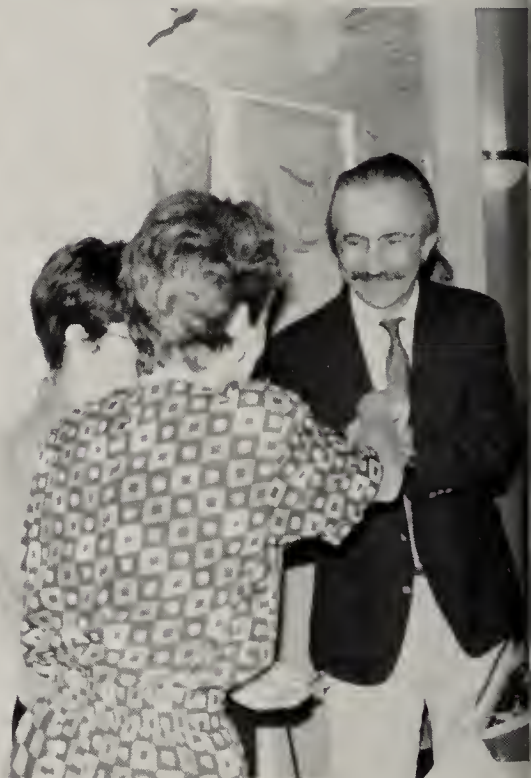

The yearbook always brings out the best in people especially when Mark Calkins & Carla Hotard are together.

The yearbook is an integral part of life at CSN. The Caps and Capes staff is unique every semester. Students have often said that there is no better "fun" than working fast and furious on a yearbook deadline!

"I wonder if this copy will fit in this space?" ponders Lynn Robertson.

Activities

Fall Convocation

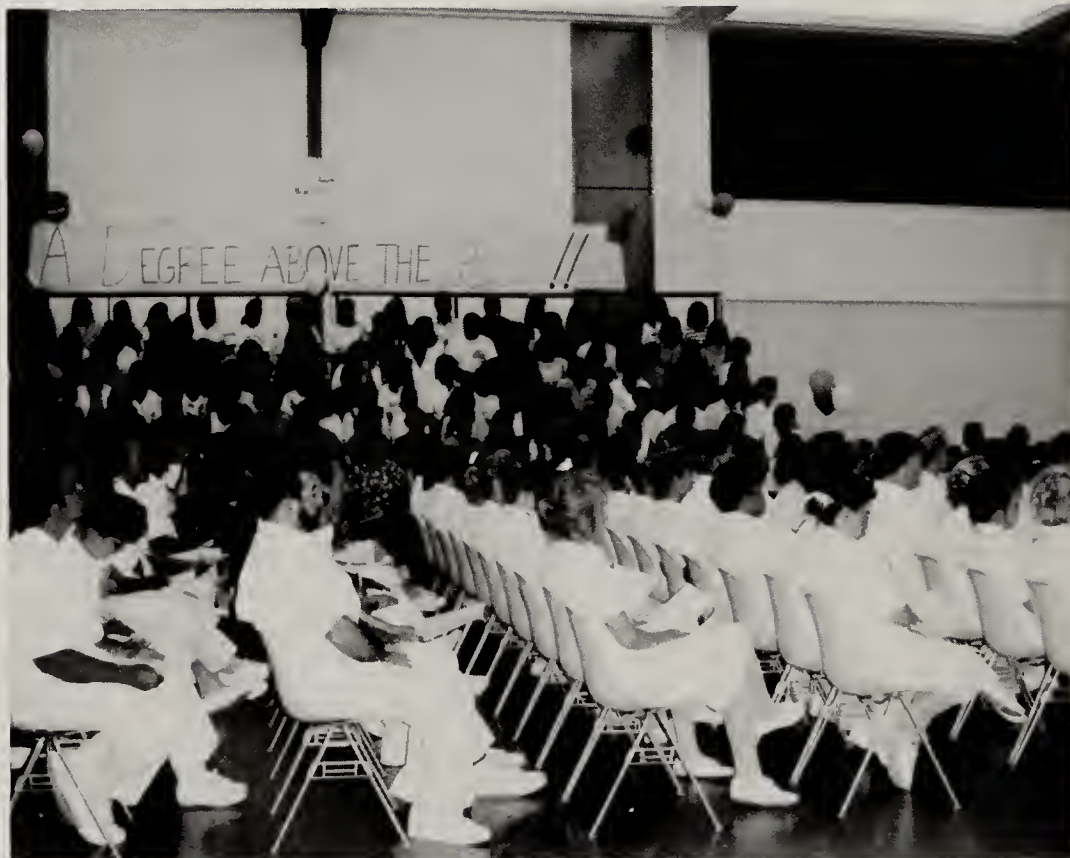

The first A.D.N. graduating class prove they are "A Degree above the rest!"

Cindy Babin presents Ms. Gordon with the "Teacher of the Year" award.

New sophomores wait to receive their sophomore pins.

Ok already, let's move to the good part — getting those sophomore bars.

Adrienne King receives a rare outstanding Clinical Award from Basics.

Ms. Deethardt appears just as excited as the students at the conclusion of convocation.

Ms. Washington presents Jim Kilgour & Bonnie Roberts with Clinical Excellence Awards.

"Everyone keep in line!"

Kelley Ballis looks at Brian Baio and says, "Mine's prettier than yours."

Carol Weed receives a Pediatrics Clinical Award from Ms. Maher.

Fall Back To School Party

Heinrick Yep & Lisa Schlesinger enjoy the Fall Back-To-School Party.

The crowd turns out for the big party.

What a crew! Julie Darce, Vicky Hammond, Jeffrey Meyers, Pam Jacobs, Stephanie Dreuy, Wendy Gourgeot, & Dub Overheu.

Always smiling, Andrea Thibodeaux goofs around with John Smith.

If you are ready for a party, you need food, drinks and Julie Waguespack, Shane Robicheaux, Barry Sykes, Lisa Nuss, Christine Hitzman and Michelle LeBouf.

Spring Back To School Party

Joanne Redmann & Gayle Barrau escape from crowd for a bite to eat.

The women of many giggles, Judy Pennison & Marilyn Shannon demonstrate the "art of giggling."

Susan Melancon & Shelley Stewart look very distinguished as they chow down on pizza at the Back-To-School Party.

Margaret Washington & Doris Burvant look like they have taken the last cookie from the jar.

Maria Kleamenakis & Al Cook can't stop laughing at one another!

Fall Formal

Denise Lacoste and beau — Craig Schechnyder.

Trish Cabellero and Tracy Bland are "Doing the Wild Thing."

A mystery woman and Angelle Pepitone are caught in the same photo but not in the same conversation.

The Level IV girls really know how to shake it loose.

Hector McKay and Colleen Couvillon share a drink and a dance.

"No, Dayna Fields not that foot, your other right foot."

Frank Tucker — who is this mystery woman?

Denise Madere asks Michael Pere "Where did you learn that move, Soul Train?"

Cindy Duhon captures the center of attention.

Terry LaCoste and Gail Jones wonder if they'll ever get their husbands to dance.

Fall Pinning Ceremony

The December graduating class recites the Nightingale Pledge at St. Joseph's Church.

"We will soon be Charity Alumni."

Dr. Elioff, President of Delgado Community College, presents her welcome and congratulations to the December graduating class.

James Kilgore signs the Sigma Alpha Chi book.

Sisters, Alice Faust and Lynn Mathews, share the joy of pinning one another.

Charlene Rovira receives the honor pin from Ms. Cooper.

"This is your last look at us as nursing students!"

Kathleen Gannon gets a congratulatory hug from her daughter.

The Charity pinning ceremony is a cherished tradition.

Christmas Party

Barry Sykes and Ms. Cooper share a Christmas secret.

Julie Waguespack, Yvette D'Argonne and Lisa Nuss try to convince Santa (Chris Case) that they were good girls this year.

Thais Sigur competes with a little one for Santa's attention.

"Gee, will I ever get to sit on Santa's lap."

Denise LaCoste, Ann Marie Pizzeck, Dawn Weiser and Timothy Bryers (with child) share the spirit of Christmas.

Charity's Annual Christmas Party means children.

Santa's Denises' line up to assist with the toy distribution. Denise Moore, Denise Madere, Denise Hymel.

"But Momma, you said Santa's beard was real?"

Yvette Sinclair strikes a pose with various children.

Ms. Cooper exclaims "Now that I'm retired do you think I'm gonna rest?! You bet!"

Denise Hymel gets to see the light in all the children's eyes as they receive gifts from Santal

Spring Convocation

This is a group of future nurses?

This is great but when do we get our bars?

Class of May '93 shows they are "Second To None" at convocation.

Ms. Riche motivates students before NAC I
Instructors pin those anxious students.

Christle Bertoniere is pinned by Ms. Davis.

Jan Boudreaux gets a congratulations hug from Ms. Wu.

Chantedium Hamm is wondering what happened to her pin. "I know it was in this box."

Barbara Holly-Young claims yet another man — Mark Calkins.

Mark Calkins presents "Second To None" T-Shirts to Mrs. Redmann & Ms. Barrau making them honorary members of May '93 class.

Darrell Bennett's excitement shows as Ms. Schaff pins his bar.

Crawfish Boil

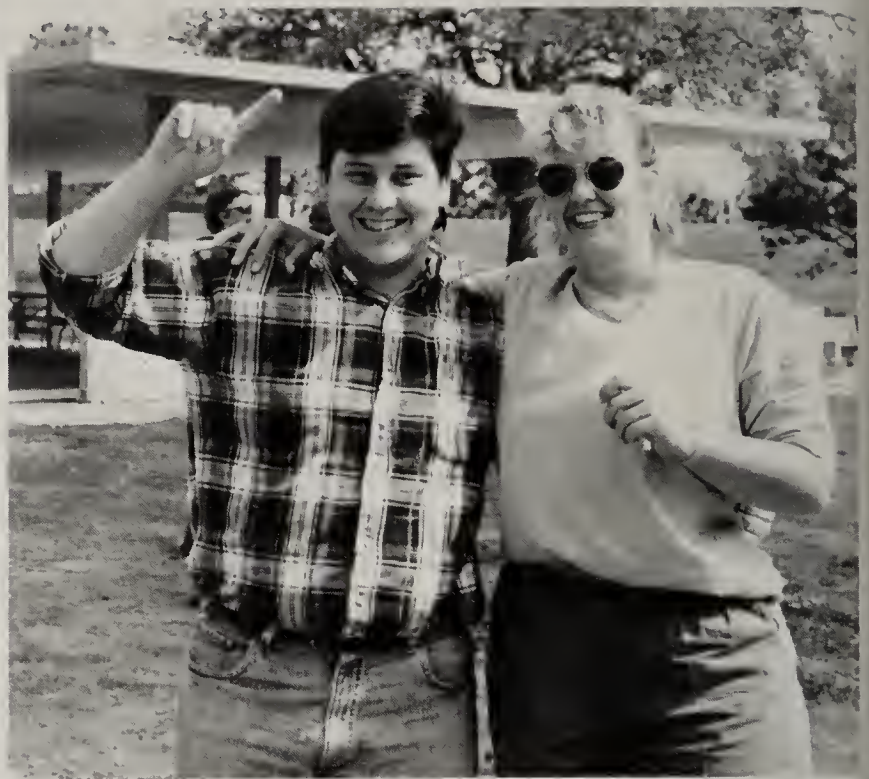

"No! No! No! Cindy Duhon!" shouts Rhonda Hamilton. "Suck the head not the tail!"

Al Cook and Lainie Davis demonstrated their expertise in egg toss as 1st place winners.

Lake Front Shelter One — Partytime!

"Do you want some candy little girl?" says Jeffery Meyers to Jeannine Marie's little one.

Mitzi Arnold is on a rare eating frenzy.

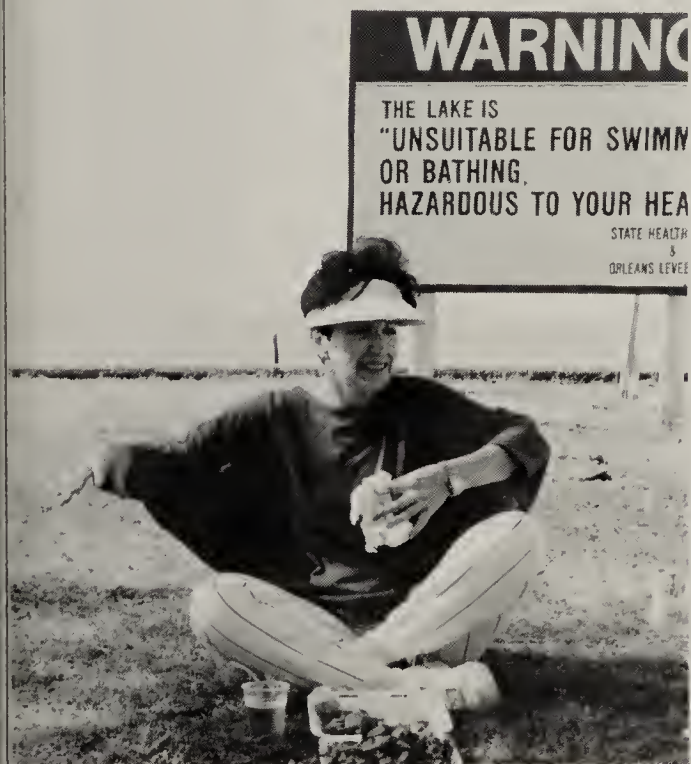

Ummm! Crawfish diet. Mike Pere eats one more plate.

These graduates enjoy their last crawfish boil.

Anyone with pie on their faces should remain nameless . . .

" . . . Oh! I hope these crawfish didn't come out of the lake!?" says Daphne Caldwell.

"Hey, who's behind those Foster Grants? Why it's Ms. Barrau and Mark Calkins!"

Fall Graduate Banquet

Barry Sykes presents class board member Blanche Bartholomew with a gift.

Denise Lacoste does her interpretation of Vanna White.

Kathleen Hyzy, Andrea Thibodeaux & Melinda Cucullu are all smiles after the banquet.

James Kilgore receives his "RN" pin from Denise Lacoste & Dub Overheu.

Dian Audibert, Mary Lambert, Alice Foust & Patty Haskens are "passing a good time" at the Fall Graduate Banquet.

Spring Graduate Banquet

The graduates look on as Beverly Shields receives her R.N. pin from Judy DeSalvo.

Tears of joy and sorrow shed from graduates, Yvette Sinclair and Shannon Saacks.

Michelle Prattini and Kevin Tyrel, "Show Us Your Pin"!

A touching moment from Gwen Skaggs as she receives Most School Spirit Award.

Roxana Williams puts her arm around Cindy Duhon and Ava Williams for "one last time".

Charlie del Marmol progresses from chocolate to Spectrum mugs as he receives his award.

Spring Graduation

Daniel Hollander & Christine Wedig
enjoy these last precious moments together.

Receiving the pin is the ultimate reward
at graduation.

A surprised Terry Cullen walks to receive the Mosby Book Award.

Denise Moore, Honor Pin graduate, also receives $1,000 scholarship from MCLA.

Graduation is a special time for Traci
Bland.

Lucy Austin rejoices at receiving the Award of Distinction.

Dub Overheu, class president, leads the graduates in reciting the Nightingale Pledge.

David Bommarito & Sheri Buras are too excited for words.

The Alma Mater is beautifully led by Mark Calkins & Barbara Holly-Young.

Debra Dummitt, Linda Caballero, & Doddie Sharp anxiously await the big moment.

Stan Bagbey eloquently delivers a final talk to the graduates.
